Meet Dexter Morgan, everyone's favorite serial killer. Miami forensics expert by day and murderer by night, this serial-killer killer is making the world a better place - one homicide at a time.

We know coming up with hours of content everyday is a killer! So feel free to chat up the DEXTER Premiere and Michael C. Hall. Ask your listeners - why are they obsessed with crime shows? Are they fascinated by serial killers? Is the death penalty an appropriate punishment for murder?
